2nd March 1834

My dear Sir

I am about to leave Town next week to visit my Friends in the Country and shall probably be absent five or six weeks - If however I should return in time for the East India Election I shall be happy to vote for your Friend Mr Warden -

I was in quarantine during my last visit to Malta which prevented Mr from seeing your Wife - She wrote a note to me and from that I learnt that [illegible] interesting & very amiable daughter had recently been married to Capt Bowles whom I have had the pleasure of ~~know~~ meeting at his house - and I like him much - Steel Pens are awkward to handle those accustomed to the Quill - I cannot get on with the one I am now using though as Fair Lady is its owner.

Ever my dear Sir
Most faithfully Yours
John Franklin

A report on the carrying out of the rather complicated provisions for Garrick's estate ensuing fr his will, and involving many of his relations and/or executors. Eva Maria, his widow, is am the original defendants with Lord Camden, Richard Rigby, Albany Wallis (Garrick's friend executor) Peter Garrick, Elizabeth Garrick, Thomas Docksey, etc., etc. The plaintiff " Garri was evidently a kinsman making a claim on the estate. There was also a " supplemental su between James Susannah [sic] Patton and his wife against Evan Jones, Eva Maria Garrick numerous others. The report certifies that the orders made in these cases have been carried with schedules of sums disbursed and names of beneficiaries. Many of the persons concer had since died, though Eva Garrick was still living. Colt Hoare, Linley, Sheridan, Burke ar
